ID cards to citizens

150. SHRI KAMAL AKHTAR: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government is launching any project for issuing ID cards to citizens of India;

(b) whether this gigantic task would be completed before next general election; and

(c) if so, whether this specialized task will be got done through Government organizations or through professional bodies to ensure that accurate details of the person and his photograph etc. are incorporated correctly?

THE MiNISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANUC RAO GAVIT): (a) to (c) The Government proposes to issue Multi-purpose National Identity (Smart)

Card (MNIC) to the citizens in the country. The project envisages providing unique National Identity Number (NIN) to each person in the National Population Register. However, keeping in view the complexities involved both in the processes and technology, a pilot project has been under implementation on an experimental basis covering a population of 30.95 lakhs in the selected areas in 12 States and 1 Union Territory. Under the pilot project, identity (Smart) cards are being issued to the citizens of age 18 years and above.

The production and distribution of identity cards has been undertaken through Central Public Sector Undertakings (CPSUs). This was to be completed by July, 2007. But due to time taken in sourcing of raw materials and stabilization of rejects during personalisation, this has taken time and will be completed by March, 2008.

It is proposed to decide on the implementation of the scheme in the entire country in the light of the experiences gained and lessons learnt from the pilot project.
